Psalm 102:15–28 (antiphon v. 13)

Nations will fear the name of the LORD,* and all the kings of the earth will fear your glory.
For the LORD builds up Zion,*
   he appears in his glory;

he regards the prayer of the destitute*
   and does not despise their prayer.
Let this be recorded for a generation to come,*
   so that a people yet to be created may praise the LORD:

that he looked down from his holy height;*
   from heaven the LORD looked at the earth,
to hear the groans of the prisoners,*
   to set free those who were doomed to die,

that they may declare in Zion the name of the LORD,*
   and in Jerusalem his praise,
when peoples gather together,*
   and kingdoms, to worship the LORD.

He has broken my strength in midcourse;*
   he has shortened my days.
“O my God,” I say, “take me not away in the midst of my days—* you whose years endure throughout all generations!”

Of old you laid the foundation of the earth,*
   and the heavens are the work of your hands.
They will perish, but you will remain;*
   they will all wear out like a garment.

You will change them like a robe, and they will pass away, but you are the same, and your years have no end.
The children of your servants shall dwell secure;*
   their offspring shall be established before you.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son*
   and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning,*
   is now, and will be forever. Amen.
