Opening of the Academic Year

L The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

L Let us pray.

O God, through the Holy Spirit You illumine the minds and sanctify the lives of those whom You call to the work of pastors and deaconesses. Bless the seminary and the academic year which we begin in Your name this day. Bless those who teach and those who learn, and so renew and increase in us the gifts of Your Spirit that we may be built up in our most holy faith, strengthened for every duty, and enabled to render You and our fellowmen true acceptable service, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C Amen.

L As President of Concordia Theological Seminary, by the authority vested in me by the Board of Regents, I now declare the beginning of the one-hundred-seventy-second academic year of this seminary, in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

L May the true faith flourish among us, the fear of God, and the love of the brethren; may the voice of prayer continually be heard here, the voice of rejoicing and salvation, the voice of praise, and the invocation of the most glorious and honorable name of the triune God, henceforth and forever.

C Amen.

Office Hymn 668 Rise! To Arms! With Prayer Employ You

Stanza 2 is sung by the choir in a setting by Franz Tunder.

First Reading Matthew 12:22–32

After the reading:

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

Psalm Psalm 26

The antiphon is sung once by the choir and then is immediately repeated by the congregation.

The congregation sings the psalm responsively with the choir, repeating the antiphon where indicated.

O Lord, I love the hab - i - ta - tion

of your house, of your house.

Vindicate me, O LORD, for I have walked in my in- | tegrity,*
and I have trusted in the LORD without | wavering.

Prove me, O LORD, and | try me;*
test my heart | and my mind.

For your steadfast love is be- | fore my eyes,*
and I walk in your | faithfulness.

I do not sit with men of | falsehood,*
nor do I consort with | hypocrites.

I hate the assembly of evil- | doers,*
and I will not sit with the | wicked.

I wash my hands in | innocence*
and go around your altar, | O LORD,

proclaiming thanksgiving | aloud,*
and telling all your | wondrous deeds.

O Lord, I love the hab - i - ta - tion
of your house, of your house.

O LORD, I love the habitation | of your house*
and the place where your | glory dwells.

Do not sweep my soul away with | sinners,*
nor my life with blood- | thirsty men,

in whose hands are evil de- | vices,*
and whose right hands are | full of bribes.

But as for me, I shall walk in my in- | tegrity;*
redeem me, and be gra- | cious to me.

My foot stands on | level ground;*
in the great assembly I will | bless the LORD.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

Antiphon

Second Reading Revelation 3:7–13

After the reading:

- L O Lord, have mercy on us.
- C Thanks be to God.

- L In many and various ways, God spoke to His people of old by the prophets.
- C But now in these last days, He has spoken to us by His Son.

Bless - ed be the Lord, the God of Is - ra - el;

He has come to His peo-ple and re - deemed them.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of | Israel;
He has come to His people and re - | deemed them.
He has raised up for us a mighty | Savior,
born of the house of His servant | David.

Through His holy prophets He prom- | ised of old
that He would save us from our enemies, from the hands of all who | hate us.
He promised to show mercy to our | fathers
and to remember His holy | covenant.

This was the oath He swore to our father | Abraham:
to set us free from the hands of our | enemies,
free to worship Him with- | out fear,
holy and righteous in His sight all the days | of our life.

Refrain

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the | Most High,
for you will go before the Lord to pre- | pare His way,

A Note regarding Academic Apparel

The hoods worn by faculty members and candidates for degrees indicate the degree held, the subject in which it is held, and the institution which conferred the degree. The colors of the silk lining of the hood are the colors of the institution that granted the degree. The hood of Concordia Theological Seminary, for example, is lined with blue and white. The color of the velvet lining of the hood, running forward around the throat, indicates the faculty or department in which the degree has been earned.

Blue, light Education

Pink Music

Violet Theology (Europe)

Blue, dark Philosophy

Purple Law

White Arts and Letters

Lemon Library Science

Scarlet Theology

Gold bullion tassels on the caps indicate a doctor's degree, as do the three chevrons (velvet stripes) on the arms of the academic gown.

CONCORDIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
Fort Wayne, Indiana
Kramer Chapel

Worship in Kramer Chapel

During your studies at Concordia Theological Seminary, Kramer Chapel will be central to your formation as future pastors and deaconesses in Christ's church. Here you will receive the Lord's gifts in abundance—forgiveness, life, and salvation, delivered to you through the preached Word and Sacraments.

In the services you will also experience the rich liturgical heritage that has been handed down to us. In order to prepare future worship leaders for the church, we will make use of nearly all the services in Lutheran Service Book, far more than the average congregation is likely to use. Over the course of the year, for example, we will sing all five settings of the Divine Service. You will undoubtedly learn some new “favorites” here in Kramer Chapel, and you will likely sing a few things that aren't as much to your liking. It is our goal to give you a full sampling of treasures old and new, even as you yourself are nourished by the Word of God.

In the coming weeks and months, cantors, choirs, and instrumentalists will lead us in lifting our voices to the God of all grace. We invite you to participate as fully as you are able. Above all, make it your aim to join fellow students, faculty, and staff each day as we ponder the mercies shown to us in Christ Jesus.

Paul J. Grime
Dean of the Chapel
