

Donation Day

Since its beginning on the Springfield campus in the early 1900s, Donation Day has been an annual tradition at Concordia Theological Seminary. In recent years, districts and societies of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) have joined with the Seminary Guild to gather needed items for the Seminary's Food & Clothing Co-op. The LWML districts have funded mission grants to support the Food Co-op with resources to purchase fruits, vegetables and other perishables.

- Dry and canned food items, toilet paper, paper towels, personal hygiene items, health care products and disposable diapers are always welcome.
- There is always a need for new or clean used clothing in good repair for all members of the family.
- Additionally, monetary donations are used to purchase food at low cost through local food banks.
- Bring your donations of food items or gently-used clothing and household items to the Food & Clothing Co-op.
- Gift cards to major local retailers and restaurants and also gas cards (all no larger than $25) are always welcome. These cards are shared with the students at Christmastime.
- For more information on the Food & Clothing Co-op please contact the Co-op at 260.452.2168 or Co-ops@ctsfw.edu.

All Donation Day events will take place on the Concordia Theological Seminary campus, located at 6600 N. Clinton Street, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Please plan to drop off all your Donation Day items at the Food & Clothing Co-op. Workers will be available to assist you.
