Holy Cross Day

Reverend Douglas Christian
St. John Lutheran Church, Monroeville, Indiana
Preacher and Celebrant

The celebration of the Lord's Supper in Kramer Chapel is under the auspices of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Fort Wayne, the Rev. Peter Cage, pastor. Communicants at this altar are to be in full confessional fellowship with The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. If there are spiritual concerns that may affect your communing here, please contact the Dean of Chapel or Dr. Gieschen prior to the service. If you are not communing this day but wish to receive a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest as you kneel at the altar.

Confession and Absolution – LSB 151

Introit

The LORD has made known his salvation;
he has revealed his righteousness in the sight of the nations.

Oh sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done | marvelous things!*
His right hand and his holy arm have worked salva- | tion for him.
Make a joyful noise to the LORD, | all the earth;*
break forth into joyous song and sing | praises!

With trumpets and the sound | of the horn*
make a joyful noise before the | King, the LORD!
Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

The LORD has made known his salvation;
he has revealed his righteousness in the sight of the nations.

Service of the Sacrament – LSB 160

For the distribution: The body of Christ will be placed in the hand. When receiving the blood of Christ, please take hold of the base of the chalice and tip it yourself so that the server will know when you have received Christ's blood. If you don't do this, it's very difficult for the server to know whether you have received any. Thank you for your assistance.

Psalm 103:1–12

The antiphon is sung first by the soloist, then repeated by all.

Bless the Lord, my soul and bless his ho - ly name

Bless the Lord my soul, who leads me in - to life.

Antiphon

Bless the LORD, | O my soul,*
and all that is within me, bless his | holy name!

Bless the LORD, | O my soul,*
and forget not all his | benefits,

who forgives all your in- | iquity,*
who heals all your dis- | eases,
who redeems your life | from the pit,*
who crowns you with steadfast love and | mercy,

who satisfies | you with good*
so that your youth is renewed like the | eagle's.

The LORD works | righteousness*
and justice for all who | are oppressed. Antiphon

He made known his ways to | Moses,*
his acts to the people of | Israel.

The LORD is merciful and | gracious,*
slow to anger and abounding in | steadfast love.

He will not | always chide,*
nor will he keep his anger for- | ever.
He does not deal with us according | to our sins,*
nor repay us according to our in- | iquities.

For as high as the heavens are a- | bove the earth,*
so great is his steadfast love toward those who | fear him;
as far as the east is | from the west,*
so far does he remove our transgress- | ions from us.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

Bless the Lord, my soul and bless his ho - ly name

Bless the Lord my soul, who leads me in - to life.

Seating in Chapel: We have room, so space yourselves as best you can. Two additional thoughts: first, please sit toward the front of the chapel so that those who arrive after you can find a place to sit. Second, move toward the center of the pew, leaving the ends for others who come after you. That way, no one will have to crawl over you to reach an empty space. Thank you.
