Dr. Adam Francisco

Dr. Adam Francisco is Professor of History and Political Thought at Concordia University in Irvine, California. He earned his DPhil at the University of Oxford, was the Albin Salton Fellow at the University of London, and has served on the faculties of Concordia College in New York and Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne, Indiana. His publications include Martin Luther and Islam; Making the Case for Christianity; and The Resurrection Fact. He and his wife, Rachel, live in San Juan Capistrano with their four children, breathing in the ocean air.

“Why Should I Believe You?” Christian Apologetics for Today

Christians are often asked to give an account or reason for their faith, and Scripture enjoins us to “always be prepared to make a defense” for the hope that is ours in Christ. Because few are equipped for such encounters, this course seeks to introduce Christians to and encourage them in today’s apologetic challenges.
