

Degrees and Current Position

Klaus Detlev Schulz (born 24th August 1962)

Bachelor of Arts in Classics and German (B.A.), Pietermaritzburg, South Africa

Master of Divinity (M.Div.), Oberursel, Germany

Master of Sacred Theology (S.T.M.), Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne

Doctor of Theology (ThD), Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.

Professor of Pastoral Ministry and Missions Department (PMM), Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne

Supervisor of Ph.D. in Missiology Program

Dean of Graduate Studies

Fellow for Africa Conferences, Luther Academy

Co-Director, International Studies, Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne

Dr. Schulz is a professor in the Department of Pastoral Ministry and Missions at Concordia Theological Seminary (CTS) since Fall of 1998.

Publications

Dr. Schulz has published numerous articles in the area of Missions and Systematic theology. He has translated a book on The Church comes from all Nations. Luther Texts on Missions, which was published by CPH in Fall 2003. In 2007, he published a book on Witness through CPH and his latest book Mission from the Cross was published by CPH in August 2009. Currently he is working on a book on Anthropology for the Confessional Dogmatics series, which has been submitted for publication.

Background Information

Dr. Schulz was born on August 24, 1962 in South Africa as the son to former missionary and Bishop of the Lutheran Church of Southern Africa, Georg Schulz, D.D. He did his undergraduate studies in South Africa. In 1984, he earned his B.A. degree in Classics and German at the University of Natal, Pietermaritzburg, South Africa. He then moved to Germany, where in 1989 he successfully completed his M.Div. studies at the seminary of the SELK, the Lutherische

Theologische Hochschule in Oberursel, Germany. During his studies in Germany he also attended the Universities of Münster and Heidelberg. In 1990, he earned his STM degree at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne. He then served in the S.E.L.K. as vicar in Heidelberg and Mannheim, Germany, from 1990-1992. In December 1991, he received his ordination at Mannheim and continued to serve in that parish until he was admitted to the Graduate School of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis in 1992. In 1994, he concluded his studies at Concordia Seminary in St. Louis by earning a Th.D. in Systematic Theology. From 1994-1998, Dr. Schulz was a missionary and pastor in Serowe, Botswana for the Lutheran Church Mission of the S.E.L.K. (Independent Evangelical-Lutheran Church in Germany). He also served as a guest lecturer at CTS during the Fall Quarter 1997.

Dr. Schulz is married to Cornelia and has two daughters Julia and Sophie.